CAREER OBJECTIVE

A driven M.Sc. Information Technology candidate with a solid grounding in Machine Learning, NLP, and full-stack development, I am actively seeking a role where I can bring technical depth and practical initiative to the table. With hands-on projects including a TensorFlow.js-powered Chrome extension and an AR/VR web application recognised at the Nilgiri College Summit, I have proven ability to bridge research and deployment. As a Hackstronauts Hackathon winner and experienced event host, I bring strong leadership and communication skills alongside Oracle-certified technical competency across PyTorch, Keras, Flask, and GitHub, ready to contribute meaningfully to forward-thinking teams.
